

Accession number: 1992-24/391/q

Description: Single sheet of paper, watermarked C ANSELL 1820', written on one side; slight tear on short edge where seal has been broken. Letter from Henry Ellis, Secretary at the British Museum, to the Executors of Mrs Garrick, 14 July 1823.

Transcript:

British Museum

July 14th 1823

Gentlemen

The Trustees of the British museum have received Your present of Dryden's plays in tow volumes Folio, 1701: and I am directed to return You their best thanks for the same.

I have the honour to be

Gentlemen

Your most obedient humble servant

Henry Ellis, secretary

To

The Executors of the late M^{rs} Garrick.

Annotated: Mr Ellis

British Museum