Letter: 4 Essex Court Temple
17th Jan[uar]y 1824

Sir,

I am requested by Messrs Chater & Co of Fleet St. To request you will immediately discharge the Sum of £26 5s the amount of their Bill delivered for business done for you as Trustee, I believe, of M^r Garrick's Estate, for drawings Plan, Paper, colouring, Printing &c –

I understand that the Payment has been delayed owing to some misunderstanding between M^r Carr & M^r Dean, but with which Messrs Chater & co. have no concerns & by which they certainly sh[oul]d not be inconvenienced

I am Sir

Y[ou]r ob[edient] S[ervan]t
Samuel Emby

Notes:

Thomas Carr: Mr Carr: Thomas Carr, Mrs' Garrick's solicitor; his wife was a close friend of hers. After Mrs Garrick's death he bought the Hampton house estate and put it in repair.

David Garrick Papers, Hereford Museum

Mr Dean: Agent to the Trustees.
