Address: The Rev. M^r Rackett

Dear Sir,

Mr Dowdeswell will be glad to see you tomorrow at a half past twelve and you will be so good as to take with you the Case and Mr. Bell's Opinion.

I was also to suggest to you that a List or inventory of the Effects in question would be desirable, as whatever is to be sold, may be added to Mr. Christie's inventory which is p---ting

Yours very truly

T. Carr
